

Typology of juvenile delinquents

Summary

It is necessary to differentiate learning of the social environment in which the identification of a juvenile is formed.

It is considered four types of juvenile offenders, describes their characteristics and circumstances that influenced the formation of the type.

It is analyzed point of view of criminologists on the typology of minors.

Keywords: typology, juvenile crimes, types of criminals, selfish and violent crimes, situation.