

Vagabov T.F., a member of the International Organization for Legal Researches, a member of Interpol

Problems of international cooperation in criminal proceedings in the fight against corruption

Summary

It is considered the main directions of international cooperation in criminal proceedings in the fight against corruption.

It is studied the concepts of extradition and analyzed the provisions of the CPC of the Republic of Azerbaijan considering the order of extradition.

Keywords: criminal proceedings, corruption, extradition, offenses, shelter.

(the article is translated into English)